

Chrystyna M. Bedrij, co-Founder and Principal

Chrystyna Bedrij, MBA – Co-Founder and Principal at Griffin Securities with over 25 years of investment experience identifying and working with “change the world” people and businesses on high impact ideas, technologies and products that have the potential to solve challenges, improve humanity's well-being, as well as, create significant value for stakeholders. Chrystyna specializes in business development, strategy, and financing activities that advance companies to key value inflection points and strategic exits, including M & A, collaborations and IPOs. Previously, in 2002, Chrystyna launched and helped build the Griffin Research Department, which today provides in-depth research for leading Technology, Value and Healthcare companies. Chrystyna holds a B.A. in Economics from Vassar College and M.B.A. in Finance from New York University’s Leonard N. Stern of Business. FINRA license registrations include: Series 24 (Principal); 86/87 (Research Analyst Analysis and Regulations); 7 and 63 (Securities Representative).

cbedrij@griffinsecurities.com | direct 212.509.7708